

Online Tickets

The online box office makes purchases available to organizers who want to provide their ticket buyers with an option to purchase event tickets online. We send you a link to your event page so you can post it on your website, flyers, or other social media. Once your buyers complete an online purchase, we send them a sale confirmation email outlining all their transaction details and an 'e-ticket', which can be presented at the gates for entry.